

Important information for passengers

FLUGHAFENVERBAND

Regulation on liquids, aerosols and gels (LAG's)

LAG's in cabin baggage are only permitted in small quantities:

- In individual containers with a capacity not exceeding 100 ml
- All containers must be packed in a transparent, re-sealable 1-litre plastic bag.
- Only one such bag is allowed per passenger.

Prescribed medications, baby food or special dietary food proven to be required during the flight do not need to be carried in the plastic bag. Container sizes may exceed 100 ml.

Duty free items purchased at airports within the EU or on board of an EU-airline may be carried on board. They must be packed in a sealed tamper evident plastic bag with the proof of purchase visibly inside.

Forbidden items

Dangerous items, e.g. blunt, pointed or sharp objects (with a blade length exceeding 6 cm) and sports equipment (golf clubs, ski poles etc.) as well as weapons (including parts and replicas or toy weapons) in cabin baggage are prohibited by law.

Violations will be prosecuted and can be fined up to 10.000 €.

Please pack these items in your checked baggage. For information on how to transport these items safely by air, please contact your airline.

Detailed information concerning cabin baggage regulations will be provided by the federal police or otherwise responsible authorities.

Dangerous Goods

Do not carry the following dangerous goods on your body or in your baggage. Please contact your airline for exceptions and on how to transport these goods.

Explosives

Gases

Flammable Liquids and Flammable Solids

Oxidizing Substances

Toxic and Infectious Substances

Radioactive Materials

Corrosives

Miscellaneous Dangerous Goods

Lithium metal batteries with a lithium metal content below 2 g and lithium ion rechargeable batteries rating below 100 Wh may be transported in cabin baggage or checked baggage when contained in equipment (e.g. laptops, tablets, cameras). Spare batteries of any kind may only be transported in cabin baggage. Power banks are considered as spare batteries. E-cigarettes and personal vaporizers containing batteries must be in cabin baggage only.

Passenger rights / Regulation (EC) No 261/2004

If you are denied boarding or if your flight is cancelled or delayed for at least two hours, ask at the check-in counter or boarding gate for a written statement of your rights, particularly with regard to compensation and assistance.

For further information please contact your airline.
